Editorial

Thank you everyone for supporting the book week parade with wonderful costumes for the very colourful event. Great front page photo in the newspaper also.

Mrs Dail McGilchrist was very impressed with Railway Town Public School when she visited Broken Hill last week. Mrs McGilchrist is the Executive Director Public Schools. She has the responsibility for the largest area of schools in the state, from south of Wollongong to Broken Hill. Mrs McGilchrist spoke to the Principals at the Western NSW Principals Conference last Friday in Broken Hill.

Well done to our Choirs this week at the Broken Hill Eisteddfod. Great performances. Thank you to Miss Vaughan and Mrs Prevett for their efforts with our choir and vocal groups.

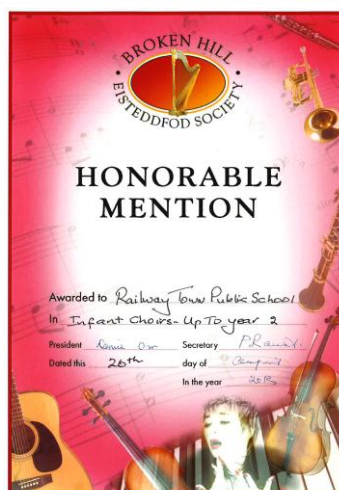

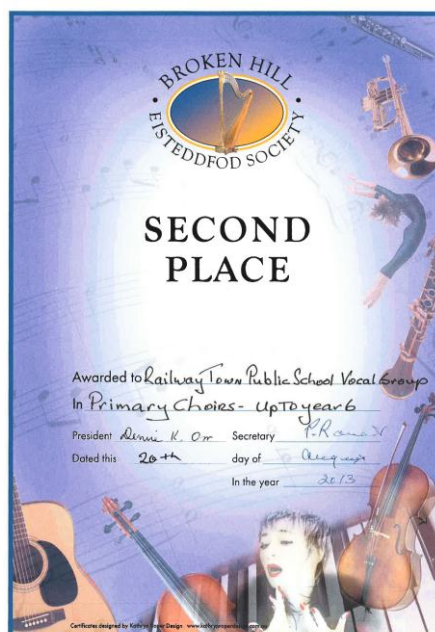

P&C Father's day stall is on this Thursday.

Have a great week,
Nigel Sherrard
Principal

Successful Eisteddfod!!!!!!!

Railway Town performed wonderfully at today's Eisteddfod. The Primary Vocal Group received a Second Place in their section. Well done Mrs Prevett and group!!!. The Junior Choir received an Honorable Mention. Thank you to Miss Vaughan and Mrs Prevett for the time they put in.

Many children are already halfway to Level 8, well done on your consistent Above the Line behaviour this year. Children need to continue focusing on receiving ticks if they wish to receive a Citizenship medallion at presentation night. These awards were introduced in conjunction with the P & C and continue to be supported by the current P & C. To receive a Citizenship medallion children must have been enrolled at Railway Town for at least half the year, have 80% attendance or higher and have no more than 3 weeks without a tick on their welfare chart over the year. (Away weeks are not counted in these 3 weeks).
