Mon 25th Aug - Eisteddfod

Editorial

A very excited group of Stage 3 students and teachers from Railway Town and Menindee boarded the bus to Canberra this morning full of anticipation for what is certain to be a most memorable experience. I believe Mrs Pascoe, Miss Gleeson and Ms Shephard, from Menindee, will have a great time. Record snow has been falling in Canberra this last week. Thank you to all the parents, students, family and friends who worked hard on the fundraising efforts. Excursions are proving to be very expensive. We are very lucky to have such dedicated people at Railway Town!

Fete preparations have begun, if you would like to assist please contact Kristie the fete convenor on 0422 019 474. Donations will be called for later this term.

It is nice to see an improvement in students wearing school uniform. Jumpers and jackets are for sale at the front office if you require them.

The Eisteddfod will be held on Monday 25th August, students attending will receive a note during the week outlining all the details.

Have a great week everyone!
