What's On?

Tues 3rd May – Mother's Day Stall

Fri 6th May – Bell Shakespeare performance

Wed 11th May – P & C Meeting

Engine Driver's Message

This week our staff and students will be treated to another performance by the Bell Shakespeare Company. Last year we were privileged to have a resident actor (Felix) for a week in our school which resulted in all of our students taking to the stage to perform "A Midsummer Night's Dream". I feel that the opportunity to be exposed to a Shakespearean experience is not one to be missed and I would like to thank Miss Vaughan for ensuring that Railway Town was included in the company's tour of Broken Hill.

The P&C have organised some amazing Mother's Day gifts for our students to purchase tomorrow. The pre-school students will also have the opportunity come along and find a gift for mum or grandma. Thank you to all of our volunteers who have made themselves available to assist the students with their purchases.

On a final note, it would be great to see as many Railway Town students as possible at the Jubilee Oval on Thursday morning to help play their part in promoting LEAD Safety in Broken Hill.

Have a great week...

Kerry-Sue Pascoe

Principal
